

Health Communication Research Centre
WORKSHOP
Friday, 18 July 2008

Risk and Uncertainty in Healthcare Settings
Aberdare Hall, Corbett Road, Cardiff University

9.30 – 10.00	Tea/Coffee & Registration
10.00 – 10.15	Opening/Introduction
10.15 – 10.45	Kenneth Calman , University of Glasgow "Risk and uncertainty in healthcare: An overview"
10.45 – 11.30	Michelle Edwards, Myfanwy Davies & Adrian Edwards , School of Medicine, Cardiff University "What are the external influences on information exchange and shared decision-making in healthcare consultations: A meta-synthesis of the literature"
11.30 – 12.15	Peter J Schulz , University of Lugano, Switzerland "Calibrating risks to counter unwarranted health concern, or making good news convincing"
12.15 – 13.00	Michael Brannigan The College of St Rose, Albany, New York "Antimicrobials and ventilators: Are public health and clinical medicine in moral tension?"
13.00-14.15	Lunch
14.15 – 15.00	Tom Horlick-Jones School of Social Sciences, Cardiff University "Does having cancer make you irrational?"
15.00 – 15.45	Barry Saferstein University of California, San Marcos "Genes don't flow: Uncertainty and risk in understandings of genetics and health"
15.45 – 16.30	Srikant Sarangi , HCRC, Cardiff University "Formulation of uncertainty as risk in genetic counselling"
16.30 – 17.00	Discussion and Closing

Attendance is by invitation only.