1. Programme Structure

The programme is coherently structured and reflects the intellectual trends developing in the field.

2. Academic Standards

Academic standards are consistent, sustained and compare well with other Russell Group institutions where I have taught and/or been an external examiner.

3. The Assessment Process

The intended learning outcomes are well-defined and the achievements of the students correspond to them. The work is intellectually challenging, as it should be at this level, and the results obtained suggest that the students are well taught and assessed in a fair and consistent manner across the range of modules they are offered.

4. Year-on-Year Comments

As usual, the work of the external examiner this session has been facilitated by the cooperative and responsive approach of colleagues at Cardiff.

5. Preparation / Induction Activity (for new External Examiners only)

6. Noteworthy Practice and Enhancement

All institutions face the same challenges when it comes to expediting work to external examiners. But if it were possible to find a little more leeway in the turnaround times for work to be moderated that would be helpful.

7. Appointment Overview (for retiring External Examiners only)
