

School of Planning and Geography

School of Earth and Ocean Sciences

Cardiff Case Studies: Geographical Research for A-level Teachers

Cardiff University

Glamorgan Building, King Edward VII Avenue, Cardiff, CF10 3WA

Tuesday 16th June, 2015

10:00 – 15.30

MORNING PROGRAMME

REGISTRATION, TEA & COFFEE, Committee Room 2 [10:00 – 10:30]

INTRODUCTORY SESSION, Committee Room 1

10:30 – 10:40 Welcome & introduction to Cardiff Case Studies,
Dr. Peter Mackie (Cardiff University) & Andrea Meyrick (Techniquest)

10:40 – 11:00 A chance to catch a breath: Using mobile videos in geographical research,
Dr. Justin Spinney

CASE STUDY SESSION 1, Committee Room 1

11:00 – 11:30 Segregation, diversity and encounters in Grangetown, Cardiff, Dr. Richard Gale

11.30 – 12:00 Feeding the billions: exploring global food security, Dr. Ana Moragues Faus

TEA/COFFEE BREAK, Committee Room 2 [12:00 – 12:20]

CASE STUDY SESSION 2, Committee Room 1

12:20 – 12:50 The ecological footprint of major sporting events, Dr. Andrea Collins

LUNCH, Committee Room 2 [12:50 – 13:30]

AFTERNOON PROGRAMME

CASE STUDY SESSION 3, Committee Room 1

13:30 – 14:00 'Rockin' the arctic: how does rock weathering influence polar bear survival?' , Dr. Lisa Mol

14:00 – 14:30 Land grabbing: rapid environmental change in the news (and in history), Dr. Eli Lazarus

14.30 – 15.00 Cardiff: The city-region, Dr. Gill Bristow

CONCLUDING SESSION, Committee Room 1

15:00 – 15:15 Undergraduate degrees for Geographers at Cardiff University,
Dr. Peter Mackie & Dr. Rupert Perkins

15:15 – 15:30 Tea, coffee and networking (Committee Room 2)

Morning and afternoon programmes are provisional and are subject to change*

To view and download the complete Cardiff Case Study collection, visit the following link:

www.cardiff.ac.uk/cplan/research/cardiff-case-studies

Any queries about Cardiff Case Studies should be directed to Dr. Peter Mackie, MackieP@cardiff.ac.uk | 02920 876223

