1. Programme Structure (curriculum design, programme structure and level, methods of teaching and learning)

Excellent structure and variation in teaching and assessment.

2. Academic Standards (comparability with other UK HEIs, achievement of students, any PSRB requirements)

High levels of academic standards expected and mostly achieved with ongoing evidence of the course now identifying those struggling with the format and encouraging them to improve.

3. The Assessment Process (enabling achievement of aims and learning outcomes; stretch of assessment; comparability of standards between modules of the same level)

Very clear marking guidelines and standards set out for students and examiners. Extra help now being given to those found to be struggling with the format at the start of the course. Marking consistent except for in one example that has been brought to the attention of the course organisers.

4. Examination of Master’s Dissertations (if applicable) (sample of dissertations received, appropriateness of marking schemes, standard of internal marking, classification of awards)

5. Year-on-Year Comments

Previous External Examiner Reports are available from the Cardiff University Website [here.]

Courses continue to build on previous experience and uphold robust standards.

6. Preparation for the role of External Examiner (for new External Examiners only) (appropriateness of briefing provided by the programme team and supporting information, visits to School, ability to meet with students, arrangements for accessing work to review)

Fine.

7. Noteworthy Practice and Enhancement (good and innovative practice in learning, teaching and assessment; opportunities for enhancement of learning opportunities)

Struggling students now being identified and their understanding of what is expected regards format and style hopefully being addresses so each students academic potential can be fully reached, without this being hampered by stylistic differences/problems.
