1. Programme Structure

The programme connects directly with education practice in schools. The module structure and content is well designed and supports students to engage in depth with specific aspects of their own practice.

2. Academic Standards

The programme maintains a high standard of academic content suitable for a professional masters programme.

3. The Assessment Process

The assessment process is rigorous, supportive and the content of the individual feedback on summative tasks is to be commended.

4. Year-on-Year Comments

5. Preparation / Induction Activity (for new External Examiners only)

6. Noteworthy Practice and Enhancement

The standard of feedback to students is excellent. The tutors on this programme provide relevant, pertinent feedback with identified developmental strategies for each student.
