1. Programme Structure (curriculum design, programme structure and level, methods of teaching and learning)

A well organised and delivered programme with reliable outcomes. Several methods of appropriate teaching and assessment used.

2. Academic Standards (comparability with other UK HEIs, achievement of students, any PSRB requirements)

Comparable with the current standard in UK institutions.

3. The Assessment Process (enabling achievement of aims and learning outcomes; stretch of assessment; comparability of standards between modules of the same level)

A rigorous assessment process involving several assessors and methods of assessment. Standards were at a comparable level between modules.

4. Examination of Master's Dissertations (sample of dissertations received, appropriateness of marking schemes, standard of internal marking, classification of awards)

Dissertations of a consistently high standard, fair internal marking.

5. Year-on-Year Comments

Previous External Examiner Reports are available from the Cardiff University Website [here.]

6. Preparation for the role of External Examiner (for new External Examiners only) (appropriateness of briefing provided by the programme team and supporting information, visits to School, ability to meet with students, arrangements for accessing work to review)

7. Noteworthy Practice and Enhancement (good and innovative practice in learning, teaching and assessment; opportunities for enhancement of learning opportunities)

Students learning needs well catered for with a variety of teachers, teaching methods and experiences. Innovative questions used to assess critical appraisal in the written examination.

8. Appointment Overview (for retiring External Examiners only) (significant changes in standards, programme/discipline developments, implementation of recommendations, further areas of work)

The programme has delivered consistently good standards in the time that I have acted as External examiner. The research projects are of excellent design and quality. Many thanks for your hospitality and the opportunity to serve as external examiner at Cardiff.
