1. Programme Structure

Only one dissertation was considered this year and, as this was the first year of my appointment I did not have an opportunity to consider these matters in detail. However, my impression is that the structures and processes are established and well-developed.

2. Academic Standards

The standards are high and compare favourably with those at other institutions.

3. The Assessment Process

Even though I saw the work of a small number of students only I believe that these processes are clear and transparent.

4. Year-on-Year Comments

n/a

5. Preparation / Induction Activity (for new External Examiners only)

6. Noteworthy Practice and Enhancement

See (1) above. The programmes are well-established and supported by a strong cohort of academic staff.

7. Appointment Overview (for retiring External Examiners only)
