1. Programme Structure

The development of the module structure and content of the programme to meet the changing needs of cohort 2 and 3 is to be commended.

2. Academic Standards

Appropriate academic standards are adhered to at all stages of the programme.

3. The Assessment Process

The assessment process is to be admired for the way it addresses, through the design of the assessments in each module, the needs of developing professionals teaching in Welsh Schools. It is appropriate and responsive to the practice focus of the degree and meets all requirements of the University.

4. Year-on-Year Comments

Students have submitted some excellent work this academic year and tutors continue to support them

5. Preparation / Induction Activity (for new External Examiners only)

6. Noteworthy Practice and Enhancement

The feedback and feedforward given to students on this programme is very good and supports the students to develop both their academic and professional skills. The structure of the dissertation element of the degree is excellent and ensured that a considerable number of students submitted dissertations of outstanding quality.

7. Comments on the Examination of Master's Dissertations (External Examiners for postgraduate Master's Programmes only, see also 9.23-9.29 below)

The structure of the dissertation element of the degree is excellent and ensured that a considerable number of students submitted dissertations of outstanding quality.

8. Appointment Overview (for retiring External Examiners only)

SAMPLING OF TAUGHT MASTER'S DISSERTATIONS BY EXTERNAL EXAMINERS

External Examiners shall be expected to see prescribed numbers and ranges of Dissertations, but not to mark them, on the following basis:

At least 10% of Dissertations for a postgraduate taught Master's Programme, or a minimum of 10 (whichever is the higher figure) must be seen by the External Examiner(s). Where the total number is less than 10, all Dissertations must be seen by the External Examiner(s) #.

Dissertations seen by External Examiners should include examples from across the whole range of achievement (i.e. Pass with Distinction, Pass, Fail).

External Examiners will retain the right to see other Dissertations at random.

Where more than one External Examiner is appointed on a Programme, at least 10% of Dissertations, or a minimum of 10 (whichever is the higher figure), should be seen collectively by the External Examiners.
