1. Programme Structure

The programme has a clear structure, which provides a breath of teaching, learning and assessment strategies. The programme appears to be well managed and run, clearly meeting the NMC standards of education.

2. Academic Standards

As per previous years I have been impressed by the high standards of marking and assessment, in particular the quality of feedback given to students. This year I have also enjoyed some very positive mutual interactions exploring common challenges and solutions ensuring the best standards of learning, teaching and assessment are achieved.

3. The Assessment Process

The standards of assessment remain clear, fair and robust. I have again enjoyed witnessing student presentations as well as written assignments, which had very clear processes of management and moderation.

4. Year-on-Year Comments

I have seen further developments in the programme this year and it is clear that the

SAMPLING OF TAUGHT MASTER'S DISSERTATIONS BY EXTERNAL EXAMINERS

External Examiners shall be expected to see prescribed numbers and ranges of Dissertations, but not to mark them, on the following basis:

At least 10% of Dissertations for a postgraduate taught Master's Programme, or a minimum of 10 (whichever is the higher figure) must be seen by the External Examiner(s). Where the total number is less than 10, all Dissertations must be seen by the External Examiner(s) #.

Dissertations seen by External Examiners should include examples from across the whole range of achievement (i.e. Pass with Distinction, Pass, Fail).

External Examiners will retain the right to see other Dissertations at random.

Where more than one External Examiner is appointed on a Programme, at least 10% of Dissertations, or a minimum of 10 (whichever is the higher figure), should be seen collectively by the External Examiners.
