1. Programme Structure

Clear and coherent structure, with lots of time given to the study of the Japanese language and plenty of other subjects related to Japanese society and culture.

2. Academic Standards

The academic standards are very high. Students are pushed to use their full abilities and to study hard.

3. The Assessment Process

The assessment process is rigorous and fair. Students are supported in their study throughout the year so they arrive to the final exams knowing how they have performed in the previous months and what their weaknesses or strengths are. They are also given the possibility of learning and practicing important transferrable skills, such as public speaking/presentations and essay/report writing.

4. Year-on-Year Comments

A consistently strong programme.

5. Preparation / Induction Activity (for new External Examiners only)

6. Noteworthy Practice and Enhancement

Colleagues are working hard in order to make the students' learning experience a success. The attention to the individual students, the fairness of the marking system, and the quality of the teaching should all be praised.

7. Appointment Overview (for retiring External Examiners only)
