1. Programme Structure

A well-balanced structure that offers variety and depth.

2. Academic Standards

Academic standards are high and scrupulously maintained.

3. The Assessment Process

The methods and objectives are clear, there is good coordination on team-taught units and ample feedback to the students.

4. Year-on-Year Comments

As usual, there is plenty to engage the students intellectually. The vast majority rise to the challenge and are suitably rewarded.

5. Preparation / Induction Activity (for new External Examiners only)

6. Noteworthy Practice and Enhancement

I am grateful to colleagues at Cardiff for taking on board my suggestion for diminishing the pressures of short turnaround times for scripts sent to the externals, by actually holding more work for externals to moderate when they arrive prior to the exam boards. While this results in a longer and more intense session of moderation, it nonetheless provides for a clearer overview of what is being achieved across the board.

7. Comments on the Examination of Master's Dissertations (External Examiners for postgraduate Master's Programmes only, see also 9.23-9.29 below)

The comments by markers were apposite and indicated a conscientious endeavour to prepare the students for this challenge, and feedback appropriately on their performance.

8. Appointment Overview (for retiring External Examiners only)

SAMPLING OF TAUGHT MASTER'S DISSERTATIONS BY EXTERNAL EXAMINERS

External Examiners shall be expected to see prescribed numbers and ranges of Dissertations, but not to mark them, on the following basis:

At least 10% of Dissertations for a postgraduate taught Master's Programme, or a minimum of 10 (whichever is the higher figure) must be seen by the External Examiner(s). Where the total number is less than 10, all Dissertations must be seen by the External Examiner(s) #.

Dissertations seen by External Examiners should include examples from across the whole range of achievement (i.e. Pass with Distinction, Pass, Fail).

External Examiners will retain the right to see other Dissertations at random.

- # Where more than one External Examiner is appointed on a Programme, at least 10% of Dissertations, or a minimum of 10 (whichever is the higher figure), should be seen collectively by the External Examiners.
