1. Programme Structure

The MA programme consists of an interesting mix of components that work well together to provide students with a relevant overview of the wide field of European Studies.

2. Academic Standards

The Cardiff ES MA clearly meet the standards to be expected of a postgraduate degree programme at Master's level. It is clearly comparable with programmes at other institutions and offers an attractive alternative to the due to its focus on culture in a European context.

3. The Assessment Process

The assessment process is without problem in every way. The length of essays exceeds the requirements at my institution but the Cardiff students clearly demonstrated their ability to write excellent, incisive and academically sound essays – which is a testament to the training they have received by their tutors and the overall organisation of the programme. Fair and transparent marking has been applied and the overall good results demonstrate the success of assessment regime.
