University accommodation

What our students say

Our student blogger Ellie has written you the complete checklist of what you need to pack when moving into university accommodation for the first time.

“I remember that feeling very well. The feeling of complete pre-uni panic surrounding what I will bring with me to my room in my halls of residence. Needless to say that panic was basically for nothing seeing as I only lived two hours away and was either home or had visitors every few weeks. However, I will compile a list of all the essential items you will need for when you move away from home for the first time. If worst comes to worst and you do forget something don't worry, believe it or not there are shops in Cardiff (and plenty of them!).”

The Residence Life Team (RLT) are a team of students and staff who want to ensure that you have the best possible time settling into your accommodation from the very first day. The RLT is committed to providing a warm welcome and helping you to make a smooth transition into university. The RLT will be there to greet you upon arrival to Cardiff University, helping you to make your way to your room.

“Residence Life was a home away from home for me. One of the most difficult aspects of moving to a new country was the different culture. However, thanks to the diverse Residence Life Team, not only did I meet people who I could relate to in terms of courses and cultures, but I also made wonderful friends with whom I could have meaningful bonds with, making my first year as comfortable as it is.”

Sajid

Once there, you'll find welcome gifts in your flats and kitchens from the Team. Look out especially for local vouchers and freebies, as well as the Freshers' calendar of events to help you settle in, have fun, and make friends. Oh, and don't miss all the free food!

The RLT care about you and want to work with you to build a strong sense of community in your halls. Through a wide range of social events and cultural activities, like board games evenings and crafts and coffee for a chilled night in. The team also provide peer support, and signposting to Student Support and Wellbeing should you ever need it. Our RLT are dedicated to being here for you in whichever way you might need.
