Reasons to Love Cardiff

01 The capital is our campus
Cardiff University is at the heart of a thriving and growing capital city.

"From the roar of the home crowds watching rugby at the Principality Stadium to the sunshine of Cardiff Bay, the Welsh capital is known as much for its national pride as its warm welcome for all visitors."
(Times Good University Guide 2018)

02 World-leading research
Cardiff is in the top tier of Britain’s research universities and is a member of the prestigious Russell Group. It’s ranked second nationally for research impact, and in the top five universities for research excellence in the UK.

We’ve been awarded seven Queen’s Anniversary Prizes (which recognise world-class excellence in UK Higher Education) and are home to a huge cohort of distinguished staff, including two Nobel Prize winners and 13 Royal Society Fellows.

03 Our star alumni
From politicians and journalists to scientists and innovators – many well-known faces have been through Cardiff’s corridors. Our alumni include BBC broadcasters Huw Edwards, Jason Mohammad and Susanna Reid, former National Poet of Wales Gillian Clarke, Money Saving Expert founder and journalist Martin Lewis OBE, academic, writer and broadcaster Professor Alice Roberts and many more. Our Honorary Fellows include the likes of Sir Patrick Stewart, Stephen Fry and Carol Vorderman.

04 Top teaching and employability
Stepping into a university that provides innovative, exciting teaching across the disciplines, it’s hard not to feel the buzz.

A Cardiff education is unique and personable; students are taught and mentored by committed and enthusiastic tutors and lecturers, many of whom are world-leading experts. Our graduates are amongst the most sought after by employers.

05 Bute Park A 130 acre back garden
Bute Park lies in the heart of Cardiff behind King Edward VII Avenue. With the River Taff flowing alongside, it is the perfect mixture of tranquility and wide open space, ideal for relaxing (or running) on a summer’s afternoon.

06 One big film set!
The proximity and unique architecture of the University campuses make it a prime filming location.

Cardiff is home to many TV shows, including dramas such as ‘Casualty’ and ‘Doctor Who’.

Our students fall in love with Cardiff.
So, what makes the Welsh capital so appealing?

Rich culture and history
From the internationally renowned Wales Millennium Centre on the waterfront, to the National Museum in Cathays Park and the 2,000-year-old Cardiff Castle, Cardiff is a city steeped in heritage and culture.

A city that loves running
Many elite athletes, including the likes of Mo Farah, compete in world-class events in Cardiff. The City boasts plenty of events for runners of all levels – from weekly Parkruns to the Cardiff University/Cardiff Half Marathon, the second largest race of its type in the UK. Many of our students join #TeamCardiff for this, where they also raise vital funds that support our research. Other students give their time to volunteer and our physio students are on hand to give much welcomed sports massage at the end of the 13.1 mile course!

Student volunteering is a way of life with many student-led projects serving the community. Further afield, the Phoenix Project is making a difference in Africa, working with the University of Namibia to embed quality education in focused projects, enabling better health and less poverty.

A wealth of treasures lie just beyond Cardiff’s borders, a unique part of the world asking to be explored. A trip to Barry Island is a must, a destination for ‘Gavin and Stacey’ fans and beachgoers alike. The rugged Brecon Beacons offer incredible walks, views and outdoor pursuits.

On the doorstep to wild Wales
A festival atmosphere descends during the annual Six Nations tournament, as Wales’ visiting rivals take them on in their home town. The city also hosts international football and cricket matches.
