

Cardiff Case Studies: Geographical Research for Teachers

CPD for Geography Teachers

School of Geography and Planning & School of Earth & Ocean Sciences, Cardiff University
Glamorgan Building, King Edward VII Avenue, Cardiff, CF10 3WA

Tuesday 14th June 2016, 10:00 – 15.30

Geography teachers are invited to attend the annual Cardiff Case Studies conference at Cardiff University, where they will hear academics presenting their contemporary geographical research. We have had very positive feedback from teachers who have attended past events and it is a day that the academic staff thoroughly enjoy too. Attendance is free and includes lunch but we do require teachers to reserve a place by visiting: www.cardiff.ac.uk/cplan/research/cardiff-case-studies

PROGRAMME*

MORNING

REGISTRATION, TEA & COFFEE, Committee Room 2 [10:00 – 10:30]

LUNCH, Committee Room 2 [13:20 – 14:00] (with guest speaker Roisin Willmott, RTPI Cymru)

AFTERNOON (Optional)

The afternoon sessions consists of a micro-fieldstudy visit around Cardiff and focuses on supporting teachers with new elements of the Geography syllabus which focus on Cultural Geography. We recognise that not all delegates will wish to take part in this element of the day. If you wish to leave after the lunch period you may.

CARDIFF MICRO-FIELDSTUDY VISIT

14:00 – 15:15 A sense of place in Cardiff, Dr. Jon Anderson

Take a walk through Cardiff with leading Cultural Geographer Jon Anderson. You will take a critical look at the way different parts of Cardiff are represented and perceived and in doing so you will have the opportunity to develop your own case study of images and notes.

CONCLUDING SESSION, Committee Room 1

15:15 – 15:30 Tea, coffee and networking (Committee Room 2)

Morning and afternoon programmes are provisional and are subject to change. The final programme will be confirmed prior to the event.*

Feedback from some of our past attendees

“Thoughtful, intelligent and one of the best training courses I have ever attended as a teacher.”

“I can't begin to describe how much more revived you feel about Geography after the session”
