1. Programme Structure

The module reflects standards and recommendations as identified by Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC). These standards are adhered to.

2. Academic Standards

The module maintains high academic standards. The standard is comparable to Higher Education Institutions where I have worked and where I have acted as external examiner.

3. The Assessment Process

There is a robust assessment process which reflects standards as identified by the NMC. University regulations and policies are adhered to.

Assessment criteria and marking criteria are set at an appropriate level.

4. Year-on-Year Comments

All aspects of the module are delivered to a high standard. This has been consistent throughout the four years that I have been external examiner.

5. Preparation / Induction Activity (for new External Examiners only)

6. Noteworthy Practice and Enhancement –

- Exam papers are sent to me for review within an appropriate time framework.
- My comments are listened to and actioned if appropriate.
- Communication with all the team has been excellent.

7. Appointment Overview (for retiring External Examiners only)

The module has continued to maintain very high standards.

It reflects and adheres to The Nursing and Midwifery Council's requirements and recommendations.

The internal marking and moderation process have been consistently excellent.

Communication with all member of the teaching team and administration team have been excellent.

I have had great pleasure in acting as external examiner for this module.
